“Dániel is a collaborative person willing to listen and adapt to circumstance and fellow creatives. His ability to see through false moments and get to the core of a story is a wonderful asset to any director! We worked together on two episodes of an action thriller set in Cape Town and despite cultural differences, Dániel was able to find the heart of the story and drive his edits to capture that. Not only that but he is super-fast and if you blink you will miss what he has done. It has been a pleasure to work with him and I hope for another future opportunity” Director Jozua Malherbe, Devil’s Peak

“Daniel was a crucial part of the team on Devil’s Peak. He was very smart and quickly understood the series and our ambitions. His speed at taking on thoughts and ideas was impressive. Also he was a pleasure to work with” Executive Producer Francis Hopkinson

“We hired Dániel on the strength of his short film “The Yellow Dress” and the wonderful meeting we had with him and we’ve not regretted it for a moment. His work is elegant and he’s great at finding the moments, whether they are emotional or funny. He is a joy to have in the cutting room and his work ethic is beyond reproach. I’d work with him again in a heartbeat.” Producer Johann Knobel, Devil’s Peak

“Dániel is hard working, passionate and consistently goes above and beyond. As an editor he has very good instincts, works very fast and is always offering exciting, well considered options. Daniel has been a joy to work alongside and I would work with him again in a heartbeat.” Director Brady Hood, Great Expectations

“Dániel and I worked on Netflix’s Trial by Fire” Series together and it was such a pleasure. We are so Thankful for his dedication and respect towards the material. Plus, he’s just a really easy going, fun guy to work with. Hope we get the chance to work together again soon!” Director Prashant Nair, Trial by Fire

“I was working with Dániel on Press (TV Mini-series). Dániel did the international edit for the season. I found him to be knowledgeable, hard-working, creative and confident in the cutting room. I hope there is an opportunity to work with him again in the future.” Producer Paul Gilbert, Press

“Dániel Hajnal was my assistant editor on the Sally Wainwright series ‘Gentleman Jack’ for BBC and HBO. Daniel was an important part of the editing team and was completely committed to the project. He was extremely efficient, fast and thorough and supported me and the other editors, dealing with all the requests from the two broadcasters. He was always keen to assemble scenes when possible, and demonstrated a great understanding of the production. I would not hesitate to work with Dániel again, and hope to do so. I can thoroughly recommend him to any other production.” Editor.Richard Cox, ACE

“I first met Dániel in 2012 whilst working on ‘Dracula’ in Budapest where he proved himself to be a hard working 1st Assist. who was very quick on the Avid and very good with special effects. Dániel assembled many scenes and everyone was very impressed with his work - he has a natural flare. I worked with him again in on a horror movie, ‘The Hoarder’, where, as we were on quite a tight schedule, he once again helped me greatly assembling scenes. Dániel next worked with me on ‘Killing Jesus’, a big location picture filmed in Morocco which was an extremely challenging production working with inferior equipment, but Dániel saved the day by using his own Avid equipment which, from an editing viewpoint, really helped the production run very smoothly. I’ve recently worked with Dániel in London on ‘Strike Back 8’, that requires a lot of VFX work, an area where Dániel really excels and again he did a great job on assembling some of the action scenes for me. I highly recommend Dániel as both an Editor and one of the best 1st Assistant Editors I’ve ever worked with.” Editor Xavier Russell

“Dániel has assembled beautifully for me on several Sky/HBO dramas - where time is tight and expectations of “rough cut” weekly assemblies rather dauntingly high. He is a delight to work with - proactive, dependable and extremely fast, finds an assured path through the footage be it a tsunami of 4 camera or quickly fired-off thinly covered end of day scenes, ranging from pure adrenaline pumping action to the nuanced interactions and dynamic tensions of character and performance - intimate or heavily plotted scenes - incorporating a large ensemble cast. Dániel has a confident and skilled use of music and sound effects, and is an assured hand at visual effects providing the level of polish required on high end drama.” Editor Lois Bygrave

“I could not recommend Dániel more highly after he worked as an Additional Editor on my second feature film ‘The Eyes of The Thief in West Bank, Palestine in 2014. The movie was selected as the Palestinian entry for the Best Foreign Language Film at the 87th Academy Awards. He had a great understanding of the culture and is a brilliant international team player. I think he is ready to take on the role of editor and I hope to work with Dániel Hajnal as motion picture editor in the future.” Director Najwa Najjar

“Dániel worked for our show DRACULA as our assistant editor. His work was thorough, accurate and complete. Very often Dániel was self-directed, seeing things needing to be done and taking the initiative to jump in and do what was required. We came to rely on him for designing and cutting in temporary visuals and technical support. Dániel learns new skills quickly and is always looking to do more; consequently, my colleagues and I found him a genuine pleasure to work with. I offer my highest recommendation to anyone considering hiring Dániel Hajnal.” Producer Irene Burns

“Dániel and I worked together on the feature film ‘47 Ronin’ for almost a year between 2010 and 2011. In my capacity as Production Coordinator for this Scott Stuber Universal Pictures production, I worked with Dániel during his capacity as 3D Lab Assistant. In my view, Dániel’s most notable strengths are his strong communication skills, his attention to detail and his determination to be a very hard worker. I have always known Dániel as a person willing to go the extra mile, whether it be in his resolve to sort out or take care of problems in his departments or his eagerness to take on diverse roles within each task given to him. Dániel has always been able to adapt to a wide array of functional responsibilities and work environments. I believe this is valuable quality that will help him along the line in the Film Industry. I recommend Dániel to any Film Production should they have the opportunity to hire him.” Production Coordinator Damian Anderson
